Njamito Complete Meal targets a growing market and is designed for high-volume scalability.

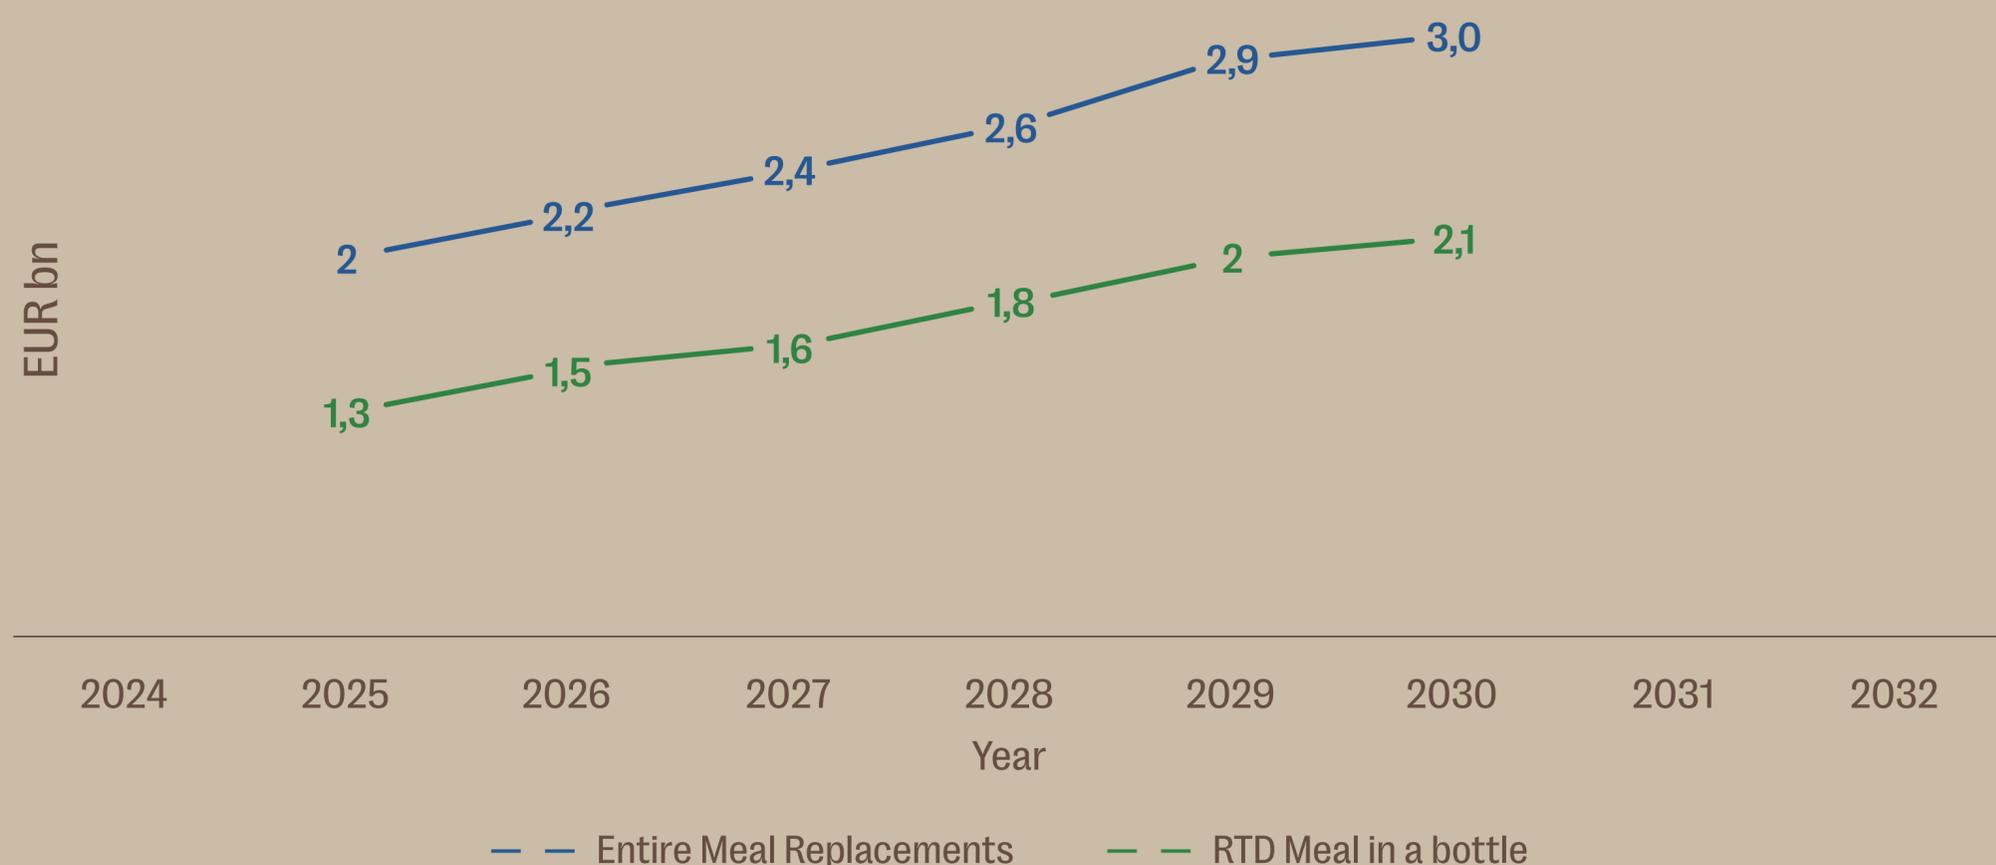

We have our sights set on:

- becoming the best-selling organic RTD meal in Europe
- ranking among the top 5 RTD meals in Europe overall

Consumers seek: convenient, tasty, healthy food.

EUROPE MEAL REPLACEMENT PRODUCTS MARKET

Meal Replacements (Europe, all segments: powder + RTD + bars)

~€1.8–2.1B in 2024/25

RTD “Meal-in-a-Bottle” Subsegment

Current size: ~€1.1–1.6B

Strong double-digit growth expected (>10% CAGR)

Projected to surpass
€1.8B by 2028–2030

How we enter the market:

We're looking at the big picture ...

... and inviting
you to come along.

As part of a broader movement that's shaking up food production, we're making it healthy for individuals as well as sustainable for the environment.

Njamito is an organic meal brand born from LoginEKO - one of Europe's leading regenerative organic farms.

Together, we form a vertically integrated food ecosystem that ties together soil health, AI-driven agriculture, and advanced food science.

BORN IN THE FIELD ...

... MADE FOR THE PAVEMENT.

In-house food development ensures quality at every step.

This allows us to deliver sustainable, healthy ingredients from LoginEKO directly to consumers.

And enables us to continually make inroads into the fast-growing market for convenient, nutritious meals.
