Creating Value in Foodservice

Innovative Packaging for a Smarter Kitchen

At CRYOVAC® and Liquibox®, we understand the challenges foodservice operators and quick-service restaurants face every day. That's why we have developed intelligent packaging and dispensing solutions to help you streamline operations, reduce waste, and elevate food safety standards. With decades of industry expertise, we are not just your supplier – we are your partner in building a more efficient and sustainable kitchen.

Efficiency That Drives Results

BOOST BACK-OF-HOUSE OPERATIONS

Optimize your kitchen workflow with CRYOVAC® flexible packaging, designed for maximum efficiency. Smart options like FlexPrep™ portion-control pouches eliminate guesswork, making work easier and faster for your team. Liquibox® taps, fitments, caps and connectors allow user-friendly dispensing for both bag-in-box and rigid containers.

REDUCE FOOD WASTE WITH HIGH-YIELD PACKAGING

Switch to solutions that help you serve more and waste less. Our vertical pouch designs deliver 98% product yield, so you get every last drop. Less wasted food means significant savings; not to mention a smaller environmental footprint.

SIMPLIFY STORAGE AND DISPENSING

Liquibox® bag-in-box solutions and dispensers make airtight storage and precise portioning effortless. From juices to dairy products, our ergonomic designs reduce spills, preserve freshness, and reduce labour so your team spends less time managing inventory and more time serving customers.

Designing a More Sustainable Future

Your customers care about sustainability, and so do we. CRYOVAC® and Liquibox® flexible packaging uses less material than traditional rigid containers, helping you lower your plastic footprint without compromising quality or functionality. Together, we can meet the growing demand for sustainable solutions while keeping your kitchen running smoothly.
